THE  JOURNEY

Andhra Pradesh

“Mystic Buddhist trails, never ending coastlines, luxury of Nawabs, breathtaking architecture, home to many Gods and the centre of many crafts... All this is just a window to what Andhra Pradesh is.

” Postcard perfect pictures of Charminar, yatras to Tirupati, the expressions of a Kuchipudi Dancer and fine Khadi - all of us have had a brush with the beautiful state of Andhra Pradesh at some point or the other. Apart from the pilgrims who visit the temples in Tirupati in large numbers, Andhra Pradesh is visited by few people who are strictly tourists. Don't mistake this for a lack of offerings, for AP (as it is fondly called) has its own mystic charms. Be it Ramoji Film City, Falaknuma Palace, Nagarjunakonda Island or Pulicat Wildlife Sanctuary, Araku Valley, Amaravati Caves, this one state offers something to please all.

4 Puttaparthi

Largely known for being the birth place of legendary spiritual teacher Sathya Sai Baba, this small locale draws many of his followers every year. It has the Prasanthi Nilayam ashram meaning 'Abode of the highest peace' which was built by Baba himself. The walls of the mandir here are painted blue, yellow and pink for "communicating the message of the harmony of intellect, spirit and heart respectively". The ashram complex also has the Chaitanya Jyoti, a museum of religions of the world, along with a hospital, an auditorium with a seating capacity of 15,000 people and many mandirs and also the Sri Sathya Sai University. Such is the environment of this ashram that it breeds within one and all the feeling of internal peace and harmony.

5 Surendrapuri

Surendrapuri, Near Yadagirigutta, Nalgonda District, Telangana, Hyderabad 508115, India

If you have ever wondered about the innumerable Hindu Gods and Goddesses, you should check out this Surendrapuri Hyderabad. Located about 60 km away from Hyderabad city, not many tourist make it up to this place. But once you reach here, you'd realize how cool this place is. Also called the Mythological Awareness Centre, the museum was established to create knowledge about Hindu mythology.

The museum was actualized by Mr. Kundu Satyanarayana, who built it in the memory of his son. There are life-size replicas of most of the import Hindu temples with the sculptures and idols of the deities inside. The replicas are convincing enough to give you the feeling of being inside the real temple. According to their sizes, these replicas are either constructed outdoors or kept indoors. Apart from these impressive structures, you will find a number of paintings and sculptures depicting instances from Ramayana, Mahabharata, Bhagavad Gita etc. There are even life-sized artistic representations of the 'three worlds', heaven and hell. A visit to Surendrapuri would be a fun way to teach your kids or learn yourself, the basic background of the Hindu Mythology. Truly devout people can have the satisfaction of having visited all the sacred temples at one place.
