What To SEE

5 Sights

BEACH

Marari beach

Kerala is the most picturesque of Indian states, one that holds the pristine blue water, white sand, vibrant coral reefs, a calmness that fills in the air and temples speaking volume of a bygone era. This tiny state is sandwiched between the marvellous Arabian Sea and lush green Western Ghats. Emerald and sapphire are the two prominent colour of Kerala. One is the colour of swaying palm grooves and other is of beaches that dot the landscapes. One is the colour of its swaying palm groves and the other is of the many lakes, rivers and water bodies that dot its landscape.

Popular places in Kerala

HILL STATION

Blessed with a storehouse of wildlife reserves, hills, lakes, and everything good, and nice – Western Ghats, Kerala is just the right place to visit if one like to holiday in a hill station. Filled with lakes, coffee, and tea plantations, waterfalls, wildlife sanctuaries, and mountains, these hill stations are just the perfect places to be whether on a family outing or a romantic escapade. Simple, and interesting, the must visit hill stations in Kerala are Munnar, Thekkady, Wayanad, Vagamon, Kumily, Ponmudi, Lakkidi, Vythiri, Idukki, Peermedu, Charalkunnu, and Mattupetty. The best part about all these places is that apart being the brimming with beautiful landscapes, each one of them has something unique to offer. .

Rejuvenation therapie !

Kerala is probably the only state in India where Ayurveda is used as a mainstream medicine. Here one can see many Ayurvedic medical colleges and hospitals across the state.

Kerala Ayurveda is famous for its 5 prolonged treatment, named as Panchakarma. As part of this treatment medicated oil, herbs, milk, and special diet are used to cure all types of ailments.

A classic text on medicine, the Ashtangahridaya, is the foundation on which Ayurveda is based. Its author, Vagbhata was the disciple of a Buddhist physician and received little recognition in the rest of India. It is believed that a few Nampoothiri (Brahmin) families were the original Ayurvedic physicians and their decedents still carry the honorific title of ashtavaidyan. Nowadays, this holistic science of healing is practiced all over India.

WAYANADSIGHTSEEING

In the morning after breakfast you are off for a full day local sightseeing during which you will be led to the famous Edakkal caves – 12 kms from Sulthan Bathery. There are three (3) caves located at a height of 1000 mts on Ambukuthimal near Ambalavayal. The new Stone Age pictographic writings on the walls of these natural caves at Edakkal are the indication of the civilization that existed in the regions in the prehistoric times. Chethalayam Falls, Chethalayam is the waterfall in Wayanad. It is surrounded by a number of vantage points for bird watching. It is also popular with trekking enthusiasts. Muniyaras are the unique series of ancient burial vaults unearthed during excavations at various points around the bottom of the Ambukuthi Hills in the district of Wayanad. Wayanad Wildlife Sanctuary, Muthanga, established in 1973, the Wayanad Wildlife Sanctuary is adjacent to the protected area network of Nagarhole and Bandipur of Karnataka on the northeast and Muthumalai of Tamil Nadu on the southeast. Over-night will be stay at hotel.

CALICUT TO WAYANAD

Arrive at Calicut / Kozhikode International Airport or the railway station. Our representatives () will take you to Wayanad (about 4 hrs' drive). You will be delighted with the mesmerizing sight of hills, caves, hiding some secrets of the past, lakes reflecting the surrounding lush green forests, small streams and miniature waterfalls cascading down the hills and dales. So much beauty, so much charm all around you feel a tingle within. Leisure and ecstasy will wipe the weariness of long drawn journey of your brow. Yes, you are safe, happy and comfortable in our guidance. We take you to the caves of Wayanad for they have a story of some ancient natives to tell you. We are with you as you move leisurely through the forests singing the tune of birds in the forests. We are with you as your feet carelessly touch the cool dew drops from the morning grass and the eyes watch a thousand suns above. On your arrival at Vythiri / Kalpetta you are cordially led into the leisure of the hotel room. You are free for the evening or can visit Pook Lake – 3 kms south of Vythiri, the end of the freshwater lake nestled among wooded hills.
